COVID-19 Fact Sheet

Topline Messages

- The federal government continues to take aggressive and proactive steps in responding to a national and worldwide outbreak of a respiratory disease caused by the novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

- FEMA and other federal agencies have been supporting The White House Coronavirus Task Force as part of a whole of government response to fight the COVID-19 pandemic and protect the public.

- On March 16, 2020, FEMA Region 7 activated its Regional Response Coordination Center (RRCC) in Kansas City, Missouri to provide a coordinated federal response to assist local, state and Tribal partners in the Midwest with COVID-19 efforts. FEMA Region 7 is comprised of the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska and is home to nine federally recognized tribal nations.

- Other federal agencies are assisting FEMA Region 7 with COVID efforts including: The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), its public health component known as Assistant Secretary for Preparedness & Response, the Department of Defense Coordinating Element, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, the U.S. Veterans Administration and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

- In recent days, President Trump approved major disaster declarations for Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska under the Robert T. Stafford Act to help reimburse certain costs associated with COVID 19-related emergency protective measures and to provide direct federal assistance to local, state and territorial governments, as well as tribal nations.

- Six of the nine federally recognized Tribes in Region 7 have received direct emergency declarations to help reimburse certain emergency costs and get direct federal assistance to support their tribal nations’ COVID efforts. Those tribes are:
  - Ponca Tribe of Nebraska
  - Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska
  - Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation of Kansas
  - Kickapoo Tribe of Kansas
Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska
Omaha Tribe of Nebraska

- Emergency protective measures for COVID-19 under both types of declarations include such items as medical supplies, temporary medical facilities used to treat patients, and some labor costs for temporary medical personnel.

- For the past month, FEMA Region 7 and HHS Region 7 have had liaisons working with state emergency management staffs and tribal leadership to help support the COVID-19 needs in each state and tribal nation.
